

گفتاوردهایی در باره شک و یقین (Quotes)

A good doubt, in epistemology and creativity is that breaks the quiescence, and the quiescence is that we thought "All angles of !!the triangle is 180 degrees" for 2000 years

The greatest problem in Epistemology is that: We are not God!! & this is not a problem but !!so excellent

God+Me= Creativity!! That's all, Like $E=mc^2$

The concepts in human knowledge structure are galaxy-like, Please observe them like .galaxies
